2011 AEGPL Congress in Bucharest

For the first time, the AEGPL Congress will be featuring a limited number of high-visibility sponsorship opportunities and advertisements in the Exhibition Directory. Advertising allows you to detail your company products and services and draw traffic to your trade show floor booth. Our Exhibition Directory is used to guide attendees through the trade show floor and often kept afterward as a directory of contacts and vendors. Please take a look at the following advertising values for your 2011 marketing program.
